Salvation Army Music (Classic Reprint)-William Booth 2016-06-26 Excerpt from Salvation Army Music: And Containing a Selection of the Most Important and Popular Tunes Referred to in "Salvation Army Songs" This book contains a selection from the Music used by The Salvation Army. Among the thousands of songs which are ever upon our people's lips in different parts of the world, some have proved themselves more attractive and more effective than others, and of such I have here brought together those which I think the best. The harmonies have been arranged in the simplest manner, and the more the book is used by young and old alike, both within and without our borders, the better I shall be pleased. Certainly there will be found here every possible variety. The music that has been composed by our own people indicates, I think, clearly enough that we can and do appreciate the sweetest. And purest melodies, while other favourites prove the high value we set on the great and moving harmonies that have come down to us even from the remotest times. It will be seen also that we have not hesitated to adopt strains such as have seldom before been associated with God's service. In no small degree by our own action, it is no longer needful, thank God, to defend the use of what once has been a popular tune of the world for the glory of the world's Saviour. Duetist Folio for Clarinet-HAL LEONARD CORP. 1989-03 (Ensemble Collection). These arrangements of easy- to medium-level duets by 18th- to 20th-century masters are great for instruction and for fun because the pieces are short and easy to master. With works by Mozart, Bartok, Boismortier, Kabalevsky, Couperin, Glazunov, Schumann, Shostakovitch, Purcell, and Bach, it's a survey of music history for young students.
