Sacred Laughter of the Sufis-Imam Jamal Rahman 2014 Combines the legendary stories of Islam's great comic foil, Mulla Nasruddin, with sayings from the Qur'an, the Prophet Muhammad, Rumi, Hafiz and other Islamic sages. Shows how spiritual seekers of all traditions--as individuals or in a group--can apply the Mulla's wisdom teachings to their spiritual lives with easy-to-follow spiritual practices.

Sacred Laughter of the Sufis-Imam Jamal Rahman 2014-04-01 A first-of-its-kind combination of the legendary wisdom stories of Islam’s great comic foil with spiritual insights for seekers of all traditions—or none. “We would do well to heed the Mulla’s wisdom. One day, inevitably, our personal storms will not abate before causing destruction. Something will break our hearts and cause us to ask deeper questions. At that point we will become spiritual seekers, each in our own way.... We will begin to hear deep inside the mysterious calling of our soul to fulfill the purpose for which we were created.” —from the chapter “The Storms in Our Lives” The mythical Mulla Nasruddin is a village simpleton and sage rolled into one. His wisdom stories, timeless and placeless, emanate from a source beyond book learning, and contain several layers of meaning. In this unique presentation, Imam Jamal Rahman weaves together spiritual insights with the Mulla’s humorous teaching stories and connects them to the issues at the heart of the spiritual quest. Addressing such topics as human vulnerability, the rigors of inner and outer spiritual work, the hazards of the ego and more, he roots the Mulla’s stories in Islamic spirituality by pairing them with sayings from the Qur’an, the Prophet Muhammad, Rumi, Hafiz and other Islamic sages. Together, these sources combined with spiritual practices will awaken your spirit with laughter and inspire you to transform yourself and the world around you.

Spiritual Gems of Islam-Jamal Rahman 2013 Islamic ethics.

Divine Play, Sacred Laughter, and Spiritual Understanding-P. Laude 2005-10-20 This study in the relationship between religion and the comic focuses on the ways in which the latter fulfils a central function in the sacred understanding of reality of pre-modern cultures and the spiritual life of religious traditions. The central thesis is that figures such as tricksters, sacred clowns, and holy fools play an essential role in bridging the gap between the divine and the human by integrating the element of disequilibrium that results from the contact between incommensurable realities. This interdisciplinary and cross-cultural series of essays is devoted to spiritual, anthropological, and literary characters and phenomena that point to a deeper understanding of the various mythological, ceremonial, and mystical ways in which the fundamental ambiguity of existence is symbolized and acted out. Given its interdisciplinary and cross-cultural perspective, this volume will appeal to scholars from a variety of fields.

Pathways to an Inner Islam-Patrick Laude 2010-01-21 An introduction to four Western figures influenced by Sufism who wrote about an "inner," esoteric Islam.

The Little Book of Sufi Stories- 2018-06-01 The stories in this book are drawn from the dozens that Douglas-Klotz has enjoyed telling in his seminars over the past 20 years. Most of them appear in works of the classical Sufis, such as Rumi, Attar, or S’adi. To preserve some of the in-person feeling and bring the language up to date, he has given them his own improvised turns. “If you want to hear a good story but prefer to read it instead, then read Douglas-Klotz! He writes as if he’s sitting in your living room, invited over for afternoon tea to entertain you with some heart-pleasing, often humorous, yet soul-searching Sufi stories. His modernization of these old texts is gentle and mindful, yet unapologetic.” —Maryam Mafi from the Foreword

Love Poems from God-Daniel Ladinsky 2002 Presents a selection of works from twelve spiritual poets, including Rumi, St. Teresa of Avila, Rabia, and St. John of the Cross.

Sacred Stress-George R. Faller, MS, LMFT 2016-04-20 Learn how to understand and use your stress for positive change. With up-to-date analysis, real-life examples and spiritual practices, this book explores the effects of stress and ways to honor its symptoms. Rather than be limited by a perspective of distress, you can use stress as a catalyst for growth in all areas of life.

Teaching—The Sacred Art-Rev. Jane E. Vennard 2015-02-26 An exploration of the hopes, fears, joys, frustrations, gifts and limitations that influence teachers of all kinds every day. Includes stories of many teachers in conventional and unconventional settings, reflection questions, practices and activities to help you reinvigorate your passion for your vocation, your students and your subject.

Tales of the Dervishes-Idries Shah 1967 A mysterious chest is buried unopened. A wondrous caravan brings fortune to a simple cobbler. An outcast princess creates a new life in the wilderness. Some of the 78 tales in this remarkable book first appeared in print over a thousand years ago; others are medieval classics. Yet each has a special relevance for us at the dawn of the 21st century. All are told with Idries Shah’s distinctive wit and grace and the author’s own commentary notes. These are teaching stories in the Sufi tradition. Those who probe beyond the surface will find multiple meanings to challenge assumptions and foster new ways of thinking and perceiving. Tales of the Dervishes is essential reading for anyone interested in Sufi thought, the significance and history of tales, or simply superb entertainment.

I Heard God Laughing-Hafiz 2006 An inspirational compilation of poetry by the renowned Sufi mystic brings together the spiritual writings of one of Islam's greatest poets in a collection that follows the various stages of a mystic's "path of love" to growth and transformation. Reprint. 35,000 first printing.

Religion Gone Astray-Don Mackenzie 2011 Expanding on the conversation started with their first book, the Interfaith Amigos - a pastor, a rabbi and an imam - probe more deeply into the problem aspects of our religious institutions to provide a profound understanding of the nature of what divides us.

The Glories of the Sacred Heart-Henry Edward Manning 1876 "The Sacred Heart is, as Simeon prophesied of Jesus Himself, 'Signum cui contradicetur.' Like the title of His Blessed Mother, who is in very truth 'Mother of God,' it has drawn to itself all the assaults of heresy. For it is a divine test of faith in the mystery of the Word made Flesh, 'ut revelentur ex multis cordibus cogitationes.' Those who have trusted with a yearning hope that the faith of Englishmen, in the Incarnation at least, was firm and clear were saddened and silenced when the pilgrimage to Paray-le-Monial elicited from some of the highest sources of the established religion a profession of simple Nestorianism. It was then that the first fifty pages in this book were published. Having been out of print for some time, they are now reprinted, as the doctrinal foundation of all that follows. The devotion of the Sacred Heart has two aspects: the one as the centre of all dogma; the other as the source of the deepest devotion. In this latter aspect it reveals to us the personal love of our Divine Redeemer towards each and every one for whom He died. It is a manifestation of His pity, tenderness, compassion, and mercy to sinners and to penitents. Nevertheless, its chief characteristic and its dominant note is His disappointment at the returns we make to Him for His love, and above all, His divine displeasure at the faults and sins of those who are specially consecrated at His service. He seems to be sadly upbraiding us with the three doubting questions which He put to Peter, 'Lovest thou Me?' and to be looking upon us as He turned and looked on him, when he had thrice denied his Master. Into this part of the devotion of the Sacred Heart I have not ventured. It has already been treated so profusely by others, and by many of whom I have only to learn; it is in itself so deep and intimately related to the personal life and mind of each, that I have always felt it better to use but few suggestive words rather than to draw out devotional acts, which to the writer are no doubt spontaneous, natural, and real, but to the reader may be a burden like Saul's armour to David. In the following pages, therefore, I have intentionally confined myself to the dogmatic side of the devotion; and for the following reasons. I believe firmly that when divine truth is fully and duly apprehended it generates devotion; that one cause of shallowness in the spiritual life is a superficial apprehension of the dogma of the Incarnation; and that one divine purpose in the institution and diffusion of the devotion of the Sacred Heart, in these last times, is to reawaken in the minds of men the consciousness of their personal relation to a Divine Master. He has foretold the dimness and coldness of these latter days: 'The Son of Man, when He cometh, shall He find, think you, faith on the earth?' (S. Luke xviii. 8.) 'Because iniquity hath abounded , the charity of many shall grow cold (S. Matt. xxiv. 12).' In that day the disciples of the Sacred Heart at least will 'know whom they have believed.'"

Grieving with Your Whole Heart-Editors at SkyLight Paths 2015-07-30 This soulful companion for grief offers wisdom and creative spiritual practices from across faith traditions for walking with sorrow and honoring loss. Whether you need to grieve in words or silence, in solitude or in company with others, this compassionate guide will help you find wholeness and a renewed vision of yourself and the world.

The Little Book of Sufi Parables-Nico Neruda 2018-12-09 Mulla Nasruddin and two other saints went for a pilgrimage to Mecca. They were passing through a village, it was the last phase of their journey. Their money was almost finished; just a little bit was left. They purchased a certain sweet called halva, but it was not enough for all the three and they were too hungry. What to do? -- and they were not even ready to divide it because then it will not fulfill anybody's hunger. So everybody started bragging about himself that, "I am more important to existence, so my life has to be saved." The first saint said, "I have been fasting, I have been praying for so many years; nobody here present is more religious and holy than I am. And God wants me to be saved, so the halva has to be given to me." The second saint said, "Yes, I know, you are a man of great austerities, but I am a great scholar. I have studied all the scriptures, my whole life I have devoted in the service of knowledge. And the world does not need people who can fast. What can you do? -- you can only fast. You can fast in heaven! The world needs knowledge. The world is so ignorant that it cannot afford to miss me. The halva has to be given to me." Mulla Nasruddin said, "I am not an ascetic, so I cannot claim any self-control. I am not a great knowledgeable person either, so that too I cannot claim. I am an ordinary sinner, and I have heard that God is always compassionate to the sinners. The halva belongs to me." They could not come to any conclusion. Finally they decided that, "We all three should sleep without eating the halva, and let God decide himself. So whosoever is given the best dream by God, in the morning that dream will be decisive." In the morning the saint said, "Nobody can compete with me anymore. Give me the halva -- because in the dream I kissed God's feet. That is the ultimate that one can hope -- what greater experience can there be?" The pundit, the scholar, the knowledgeable person laughed and he said, "That is nothing -- because God hugged me and kissed me! You kissed his feet? He kissed ME and hugged me! Where is the halva? It belongs to me." They looked at Nasruddin and asked, "What dream did you have?" Nasruddin said, "I am a poor sinner, my dream was very ordinary -- very ordinary, not worth even telling. But because you insist and because we have agreed, I will tell you. In my sleep God appeared and he said, 'You fool! What are you doing? Eat the halva!' So I have eaten it -- because how can I deny his order? There is no halva left now!" The Little Book of Sufi Parables: Short Stories on Wisdom and Spirituality Sufi Masters have been using short stories to teach people important life lessons. In just a few paragraphs, the Sufis are able to convey messages that others can hardly do in hundreds of pages. This great compilation of stories offer insights into their wisdom and inspirations. Perfect for anyone who appreciates good storytelling, and philosophical & spritual questioning.

The Forgiveness Handbook-The Editors at Skylight Paths 2014-11-03 Inspiration and encouragement from across faith traditions for all who seek hope and wholeness through letting go. “The burden of a grudge, resentment or bitterness is not fully understood until the act of forgiving another lifts it and the freedom of grace given is experienced. How weighed down we are with being unforgiving! When you truly forgive from the heart ... you know it by the liberation of your own soul.” —Rev. Timothy J. Mooney, in “A Choice and a Gift” Old wounds can bind up your heart and keep you from fully loving—and fully living—in the present. Your pain may come from devastating trauma or unconscious resentment from accumulated everyday grievances. No matter the depth of the hurt, true healing comes from the courage to face the past and begin the process of letting go. These offerings of warmth and wisdom from many different faiths, backgrounds and perspectives will encourage you to begin your own journey toward the wholeness and freedom that comes from true forgiveness. Sufi Love Poetry-Parviz N. Rasti 2011-11 In this collection there are one poem by Master Dr. Javad Nurbakhsh, 17 by Hafez, 16 by Rumi, 5 by Shah Ni'matullah and 4 by Sa'di'. I died a hundred times before I learned that when your aroma comes, I live again. Rumi

The Gift-Ḥāfiẓ 1999 Chosen by author Elizabeth Gilbert as one of her ten favorite books, Daniel Ladinsky's extraordinary renderings of 250 unforgettable lyrical poems by Hafiz, one of the greatest Sufi poets of all time More than any other Persian poet—even Rumi—Hafiz expanded the mystical, healing dimensions of poetry. Because his poems were often ecstatic love songs from God to his beloved world, many have called Hafiz the “Invisible Tongue.” Indeed, Daniel Ladinsky has said that his work with Hafiz is an attempt to do the impossible: to render Light into words—to make the Luminous Resonance of God tangible to our finite senses. I am a hole in a flute that the Christ's breath moves through— listen to this music! With this stunning collection of Hafiz's most intimate poems, Ladinsky has succeeded brilliantly in presenting the essence of one of Islam's greatest poetic and religious voices. Each line of The Gift imparts the wonderful qualities of this master Sufi poet and spiritual teacher:

encouragement, an audacious love that touches lives, profound knowledge, generosity, and a sweet, playful genius unparalleled in world literature.

The Diary of a Nobody-George Grossmith 2018-07-24 The Diary of a Nobody is an English comic novel that records the daily events in the lives of a London clerk, Charles Pooter, his wife Carrie, his son Lupin, and numerous friends and acquaintances over a period of 15 months.

The Sacred Wound-Lois Gold 2000-11-01 This is an account of one of life's most painful experiences--the sudden death of a child. A mother's anguish compels her to examine beliefs about what comes after death and to explore ancient healing methods in Mexico, Brazil, and Bali. At its core a spiritual odyssey, The Sacred Wound is about creating meaning from life-shattering events--events which can utterly destroy us or serve as a call to extraordinary courage and growth.A life-shattering event is a modern day "sacred wound," a wounding so profound that it pierces the soul and penetrates the veils of who we are and what we think life is about. Like a mythological hero, we will emerge from the ordeal another person. As the author says, "For three years grief was my consort, it became my teacher." This inspiring and searingly honest book is about more than survival following the death of a loved one; it is about the gift in tragedy's other hand. It is about discovering the truth that love is the central experience of life and not simply mortality, and that this truth can emerge in ways we can never predict or expect Deepening a Sense of the Sacred-Linda M. Longmire 2016-12-22 This is a book of contemplative poetry that is a spiritual gem. It is written from mindfulness practices in relation to a sense of the Sacred. This little book has spiritual insights that are a source of daily inspiration particularly helpful in times of personal challenges, grieving, or simple attendance to one's spiritual growth. There is much depth in these pages which offers a meaningful lens into ordinary life through a deeper way of knowing. It would appeal to a wide audience as it speaks beyond any one particular concept of God. The contemplative poetry, when read slowly, becomes a meditation and prayer in itself. Many people have a longing for a sense of the Sacred, a sense of the presence of God, and these poems supports growth in spiritual sensitivity and awareness of the Sacred in every aspect of the fully lived life. The mystical nature of the writings, the sense of inner calm that it fosters, and the utter simplicity of its spiritual perspectives, make this book a likely daily companion. It has all the makings of a spiritual classic.

Games for Hallow-e'en-Mary E. Blain 1912

Christian Mysticism and Subud-J. G. Bennett 2017-05-27 Subud is an international spiritual movement that began in Indonesia in the 1920s, founded by Muhammad Subuh Sumohadiwidjojo. The movement spread to Europe and the rest of the world in the late 1950s. The practice of Subud requires a personal initiation which can be transmitted from one person to another. John Bennett who received the contact from Husein Rof❖, was among the first Europeans to embrace Subud, and worked actively from 1957-1960 to grow the Subud movement.The lectures which make up this book were presented in 1960 and have been supplemented by a paper written later exploring the relationship between Subud and various Sufi teachers and traditions, based upon certain references made by Muhammad Subuh to his own Naqshbandi influences. John Godolphin Bennett (1897-1974) was a British mathematician, technologist, linguist and spiritual teacher. He is known as a leading exponent of the work of his teacher G.I. Gurdjieff. At the time of his death, Bennett was the Director of the International Academy for Continuous Education, Gloucestershire UK, a residential school based on the principles of Gurdjieff.

The Fourth Marker-L. Gibbons 2013-05-14 With a supernatural undercurrent, The Fourth Marker is the story of an elderly man, Gabriel Townsend, whose spirit is being crushed between the metaphoric anvil of his pragmatic views and the falling hammer of his wife's pending death. The story revolves around a family, the Townsends, whose heritage is partly Native American.The United States' Indian Removal Act of 1830, which resulted in the Trail of Tears episode in American history, required all indigenous people, with few exceptions, to leave their tribal lands in the southeast and east, along the eastern seaboard. Some Lenape (Delaware) tribal members on the Delmarva Peninsula as well as other areas in the east, defied the government and remained on their ancestral lands, hiding from authorities in the Great Pocomoke Forest, outlying islands, and swamps on the southern peninsula.A conscious decision to "hide in plain sight" or not, they eventually intermarried and bred with local whites, African-Americans, and mulattoes. Many families whose ties to Delmarva date back a hundred years or more share a heritage with those aboriginal people; however, the prejudice and racial bias of a bygone era caused many to ignore - even deny - their lineage.In the story, while a child on the family farm during the Great Depression, Gabe Townsend rejected legends of his Native American ancestors and ignored miraculous cures of family members. Gabe's half-breed grandfather, Noopah, tried to teach him tribal legends and the old ways, explaining that, after most Indians had been killed or driven from their lands by the Army and settlers, tribal elders returned to their lands in spirit form after their deaths. They dwelled at a sacred hill on the family's land and protected their descendants from early death and white man's diseases.During those years, three family members were cured of life-threatening diseases, but Gabe's mother blindly credited their recoveries to the nascent field of modern medicine. After each recovery, a person of evil character and not of tribal blood disappeared, followed by the mysterious appearance of a wood marker on the sacred tribal hill. Yet, despite those events and Noopah's words, Gabe adhered to his mother's intractable views.Now facing the loss of his wife, he relives his childhood memories, guided by the spirit of his grandfather from beyond - well beyond - the grave. Finally understanding the truth of long ago, he decides to beg the tribal spirits to take his life in exchange for his wife's, aware that a fourth marker would signify his own life - and death.As Gabe's father noted, "some understand only what they see; others see only what they understand."

The Fourth Marker highlights this most human of vices against the backdrop of Native American legends with ample helpings of farm life during the Great Depression. A Drop in the Ocean of Love-Debra Graugnard 2017-04-30 A Drop in the Ocean of Love is a collection of personal stories we hope will inspire you, open your heart to greater love, and transform your life. The stories offer a glimpse into struggles that brought about profound transformation for the authors. All seekers committed to the Sufi path of Divine love and healing through purification of the heart, each author shares how the ancient wisdom of the Sufi spiritual teachings brought about life lessons that our souls have come into physical form to learn. If you can relate to any of these struggles, we pray these stories help you to know you are not alone. We pray they help you to know yourself more completely and to know God through your own heart. If you are called to dive into the depths of the Ocean, we hope you may find yourself as a drop containing the entire ocean within you, knowing that you have never been separate, and that you are and always have been one with The Ocean of Love. The authors are all faculty and staff of The University of Spiritual Healing and Sufism and students of Sidi Shaykh Muhammad al-Jamal, who was head of the Higher Sufi Council in Jerusalem and the Holy Land, guide of the Shadhiliyya Sufi Order, and guide of the University of Spiritual Healing and Sufism. Our mission is to spread a message of Peace, Love, Mercy, Justice and Freedom throughout the world.

Sacred Duty-Tommy U Morgan 2015-09-01 While the knowledge of Jesus Christ is the beginning point of a Christian walk in life, the experience of Him is the jewel in the crown. Knowledge often decays and dies with time, but experience lasts forever. Experience life principles that will make you one of the most influential persons in the world around you. God was so proud of you when He called you onto a 'Sacred Duty' in the power of the Holy Spirit. Remember that as a Christian, you were specially handpicked by God Himself and He firmly planted you in any and all circumstances of life to display His power and glory in Jesus Name, amen.

Illuminating the Shadow-Moineddin Jablonski 2016-05-29 Illuminating the Shadow collects the Sufi writings of Moineddin Carl Jablonski (1942-2001), the spiritual successor of Samuel L. Lewis, founder of the Dances of Universal Peace and originator of a branch of the Chishtia Sufi lineage currently called the Sufi Ruhaniat International. The book weaves autobiography, letters, poems, articles and interviews to provide a unique glimpse of an illuminated Western-born mystic. Jablonski faced enormous inner and outer challenges as he sought to establish an authentic, living Sufi tradition in the West. "A book of subtle messages which will challenge and inspire any serious seeker, regardless of ethnic or religious background." -Muneera Haeri, author of The Chishtis: A Living Light and co-author with Shaykh Fadhalla Haeri of Sufi Links "This book illuminates, in his own words, the life of a gentle and gifted soul. Over the three decades I knew Moineddin Jablonski we enjoyed many intimacies, including countless hours of music-making, the study of Sufism under his guidance, and open, spacious darshans. I thought I knew him well. But in reading Illuminating the Shadow I received a newly clear, coherent picture of the whole man in all his glories and tortures, and I've come to love him as never before. Thanks to this savvy presentation of his writings, Moineddin's vision can now light the way for many more seekers of the realized life." -W. A. Mathieu, author of The Listening Book and Bridge of Waves "Moineddin Jablonski came to a true realization of heart and manifested a capacity for great love. This helped him, in a natural and unassuming way, to guide and hold together the community of Murshid Samuel Lewis" mureeds, which included various teachers who had been empowered by Murshid Sam or Pir Vilayat. Moineddin realized the need for all of us to acknowledge the psychological realm where we are often at the mercy of our ego-demands. "He took on the difficult task of getting everyone to see that they would be held accountable for their actions. His numerous letters and writings clearly reveal his depth of thought. And while his manner was saintly and refined, at the same time he stood eternally strong in his relationship with his teacher and united with the great blood stream of Oneness, in which we live and move and have our being. He worked for harmony between all the lineages that trace themselves to Pir-o-Murshid Hazrat Inayat Khan. All this and more made him a highly effective Pir, as this excellent book bears witness." -Wali Ali Meyer, co-author of Physicians of the Heart "...a rich compendium of anecdote and teaching of the eclectic and universalist shaman, Moineddin Carl Jablonski, direct heir to Samuel Lewis, Sufi and Zen master. Illuminating The Shadow is an important read for anyone interested in the Light and Shadow of our human story, and the journey of the soul. Douglas-Klotz adds to the current mystical wisdom stream with this poignant exposition of the life, love and laughter of this Sufi leader and humble practitioner." -Mariam Baker, author of Woman as Divine: Tales of the Goddess "We are indeed entering a new era of humanity, a time of massive inner and outer change and growth. Earth herself is giving birth to what she must become. Upheaval-personal, societal, and geologic-are the labor and birth pangs which will create greater consciousness of spiritual reality for all. As each one of us is moved into Soul-consciousness, and we are being so moved, we will select our own modes of spiritual realization. What we now know as "Sufism" will become vastly expanded and transformed. It will be like the reported meeting of Inayat Khan and Nyogen Senzaki. They entered samadhi together, "and Sufism and Zen became like yesterday"’s dream."" -Moineddin Jablonski

Finding Peace Through Spiritual Practice-Don Mackenzie 2016-07-26 Pastor Don Mackenzie, Rabbi Ted Falcon and Imam Jamal Rahman, who have become known as the Interfaith Amigos, look at the specific issues we face in a pluralistic society and the spiritual practices that can help us transcend those roadblocks to effective collaboration on the critical issues of our time.

Letters to Dr. Wiggly-Ellen Krumholz Mandel 2016-12-02 When Ellen Mandel's friend underwent a double mastectomy for stage-two breast cancer, she needed all the support she could get. Ellen, ever caring, answered the call. Some send flowers to sick friends. Others (Ellen included) send teddy bears. But no one needs as many teddy bears as Ellen delivered, no matter how ridiculous their costumes might be. Realizing her friend was in danger of disappearing beneath an avalanche of plush toys, Ellen switched tactics and began sending funny stories instead. A cross between a clumsy Calamity Jane (yes, you read that right) and Gracie Allen, Ellen had plenty of material for her hilarious, life-affirming vignettes. She wrote of her wonderful (if slightly crazy) family and the trials of growing up as a young baby boomer. She sent reports on the antics of her grandchildren and her own attempts to survive as a self-confessed "technological imbecile" in the modern world. Mostly, she just made her friend laugh. Letters to Dr. Wiggly collects Ellen's tales into one funny, poignant, and always-loving collection. Walk a few miles in Ellen's shoes-the road's sometimes rocky, but the trip's always hilarious.

The Wings of the Heart-Kevin Dubrow 2016-03-19 This is a Sufi adventure story for children, teenagers, and adults. In the story, a boy loses his heart wings, becomes a normal adult and then goes on a journey as a man to find his heart wings once again!

Crouching in Random Places-Joe Nunn 2015-11-01 The truth about Bi Polar Disorder, Mania and Psychosis all wrapped up in a disturbing tale of love and obsession. Never before has there been such an enlightened insight into the machinations of a broken mind, written by a true sufferer of psychotic mood imbalances and obsessional behaviour. You will cry with laughter and sorrow and no doubt feel uncomfortable at some of the subject matter, but above all you will be rewarded with a rare insight into the life of a manic depressive and the high and lows that this entails. If you truly wish to understand depression, mania, psychosis and obsession then forget the hundreds of texts book that repeat the same old dross. This book tells you exactly as it is and you will be rewarded with not just a new and in depth understanding of mental illness but also be entertained like you will never have been before....and yes, that's me on the cover, doing what I have been doing for years...so I pass you over to Kirk, my closest confidant and alter ego... Welcome to the hilarious and sad world of Kirkland Christie; a manic depressive with an obsessional character that sees him spend his time kerb jumping, hiding in hedges, midget hunting, aggressive ham eating and of course CROUCHING; Despite all his mental shortcomings or because of them, he finds himself in a wonderful relationship with the sexy Lucy and all of a sudden his life seems to be turning around. However, things don't go to plan and soon Kirk is left facing his very worst demons... This may be the strangest love story ever; the tale revolves around Kirk's burgeoning relationship with Lucy and covers a six week period in which his life goes from manic fuelled highs to cataclysmic lows. You may find much of the content to be quite disturbing as Kirk's mind focuses on all sorts of outlandish concepts, but as a long term sufferer of Bi Polar Disorder himself, the author refuses to pull any punches when it comes to describing the affect a broken mind can have on its owner and on those around him. Don't expect any political correctness; bi polar just doesn't work within such boundaries. So dive in and join Kirk's CROUCHING Community and enter a world unlike anything you will have ever seen the like of before.

Daze and Knights of Comedic Destruction-Ryan Hargraves 2012-12-13 Do you find fun in pun? Perhaps you are looking for a few puns on the run? Follow the characters of Comedic Destruction in Daze and Knights as they take you on a mind-stimulating, language-enhancing journey. Puntastic and fantastic, this book will massage your intellect, and provide your laugh muscles some 'much-kneaded' exercise via wordplay vignettes!The book is divided into several chapters. The first chapter, "Their Eyes Were Watching Job," is a collection of stories in an occupational setting or regarding a business transaction. "I Think Yet I Cram" features tales of students and teachers and, more generally, intellectual high jinks. The third chapter, "Empty Cow or Rheas: I Love My Shakes Pear," is, as you'd imagine, a collection of tales involving food; although it should be noted that these wordplays have little or no nutritional value. The final chapter, "I've Been Around: Whirled without End," features stories of characters in motion.Daze and Knights contains fun puns for everyone, enhanced by talented illustrator, Megan Nulton. This wild and witty work promises a few dozen laughs along the journey, as you'll discover, from cover to cover.

Child Prophets of the Huguenots-Francois Maximilien Mission 2017-04-14 First published in London in 1707, this book is a collection of testimonies about the "small prophets of the Cevennes," these young boys and girls, sometimes infants who called the Protestant people to repentance and later on to resistance. This book highlights a little known prophetic movement which took place between 1688 and 1702 in the South of France (Drome, Vivarais, Cevennes and Bas Languedoc). These witnesses, who were also fighters, affirm their unwavering convictions and tell how they became prophetic, and how their prophetic gift led them to take arms to fight for their freedom of conscience. Many of them went into exile in England, Switzerland, Holland and Germany.

Shattered and Scarred-A. J. Downey 2014-06-09 She's Shattered... Ashton Granger is a perfect wife to her husband. She has to be, if she's not, he will find a way to correct any perceived imperfections. Such is life, and so it has been for a very long time, eroding Ashton's sense of self, cracking her sense of worth until she lays in a million pieces on the side of a stretch of lonely highway. He's Scarred... Ethan "Trigger man" Howard is the Sergeant of Arms for The Sacred Hearts Motorcycle club. After several tours as a Marine Corps sniper overseas, he's seen and done enough damage for a man three times his age. He's out. Done. So over it, and home to nurse his wounds, physical, emotional and psychological with the help of his MC brothers. Now he simply deals with the scars that life handed him. Was it more than just luck for he and Ashton both that he was the only other soul traveling that isolated stretch of highway that night? **Mature Audiences Only (18+)** **Language, Violence, and Sexual Content including one very hot MFM threesome!**

Pyramidion-James Norman Kempster 2012-09-12 Is there a Sacred Code hidden in the Pyramids? Here is a story of the revelation of this dynamic number as a key to Heaven and Earth, Space and Time; with dramatic discoveries of synchronicity for major events in history. It promotes an holistic view of life towards unveiling Mother Nature or Mother Mary and her Angels; or the Goddess and her Devas and may be crucial in averting a Third World War. This emerging code served to predict 8 earthquakes during this story's writing with the "Signatures of God" of Solar Eclipses, showing signs from the Winged Sun for the location and timing of Sumatran and Japanese Tsunamis and for Baptismal flooding of New Orleans, the Indus River and Queensland. It reveals eclipse patterns linking lives of great leaders in history: From Buddha to Jesus to Muhammad; from Genghis Khan to Merlin and Shakespeare, Galileo and Nostradamus; Joan of Arc, Karl Marx, Mao Zedong, Stalin; Einstein, Jan Smuts, Roosevelt and Churchill; Gandhi, Benhazir Bhutto and Barack Obama. Hitherto unknown related timing of the major events in history such as a clear link from the Titanic to the 1929 Wall Street Crash; the Atom Bomb to 9/11; Princess Di and the Andromeda Galaxy with Nelson Mandela, JFK, Abraham Lincoln and Barack Obama all linked to Cosmic events from Galaxy alignments like 2012 to Comets and the Winged Sun of Solar Eclipses. This elegant intuitive numerology blends Science and Religion in unified Sound, Colour and Number for all who look to a better understanding of the Plan and Story of Life. An expanded sacred Geometry from circles in the sky with sacred mountains and lakes giving clues to the Secret Chambers in the Pyramids and Sphinx and Signs of the Second Coming of Christ and Avatars. Of use also to ordinary folk in their personal lives with names and family relationships giving holistic meanings from most of the ancient systems like I Ching, Tarot, Astrology, Hieroglyphics, Runes and the English Alphabet. All grounded in the Universal numerical fundamentals of the Chemical Elements. Thus both a Rainbow for Romantics and a Pot of Gold for Realists. "I have loved what I have read. I think the content is at a very high level of energy. I can feel your integrity coming through, your intelligence and wisdom. What makes it so much more accessible is the way you have woven in your own growth and development, experiences, realizations and insights. I congratulate you on a magnificent piece of work. I think this is a life's work and it is deeply impressive and moves me a lot. You show such knowledge, a really fine mind and sensitivity. With application it is also graspable - you have made some of the most difficult concepts so even I could understand. This is no mean achievement! I pray it goes far and wide. I would hold on to the visualization that it will make the New York Times Best Seller List!" Natalia Baker - Book Reviewer for TV show "Free Spirit" - Cape Town South Africa "I just want you to know that your book has a divine purpose in my life. I have read it over and over, making a study of it and discovering with wonder messages written for my life purpose. " - Ishtar-Kishline "Very interesting book...Insight to an amazing underlying unity linking time, space and symbol - with nature, events, humanity and the unfolding story of Life on Earth... Lots to think about..." - David de Villiers
