She would like him to get his big, gorgeous carcass out of her way so that she can carry on with her work. If they can only weather their personal firestorm... they might survive the real danger that threatens all they hold dear.

Captives of the Night-Loretta Lynda Chase 2006 Wrongly suspected of murdering her husband, lovely portrait painter Leila Beaumont turns to the enigmatic Comte d’Esmond, a man with a secretive past, for help. Extremely intriguing—especially after she gets her first look at the gorgeous lunatic. The Earl of Rawnsley wants only to lose what’s left of his mind in peace and privacy. But his busybody relatives have saddled him with a surprise bride and orders to sire an heir forthwith. (And they say he’s mad?) But with Gwendolyn, his health is returning, and his resistance ... crumbling. Is it possible that love is the finest madness of all?

She’s too intelligent to fall for the worst man in the world. . . . Jessica Trent is a determined young woman, and she’s going to drag her imbecile brother-off the road to ruin, no matter what it takes. If saving him—and with him, her family and future—means taking on the devil himself, she won’t back down. The trouble is, the devil in question is so shockingly irresistible, and the person who needs the most saving is—herself!

And suddenly nothing is simple—especially the nearly incendiary chemistry between the two most jaded, sinful souls in Europe. And just as suddenly, risking everything may be worth the prize.
